

Unique Property

The World Tourism Organization identifies cultural tourism as one of the hottest international tourism trends.

Alberta's aboriginal tourism focuses on a conservation of cultural traditions- of which your clients can learn about the aboriginal way of life and hear stories the they tell their children to pass on this way of life.

The Blackfoot Inn, Calgary Alberta is the ideal place to start your tour and give people a real sense of western hospitality, yet the elegance of a vital city.

Last but not least we are centrally located 10 minutes from downtown Calgary, access to great shopping, Calgary Zoo, Heritage Park and the Stampede grounds. Calgary is known as the gateway to the Canadian Rockies and The Blackfoot Inn is just 60 minutes away from the Banff and Lake Louise.
